A Long-Felt Want has been Filled Through the Efforts of Mr. Foosbe

The library committee of the Mt. Zion Society has opened up a reading room in the office building of Mr. J. J. Neil, just in the rear of law range. This is a good, central location and is an especially desirable room, being very cool in the afternoon, the time at which the room will be kept open. It was placed at the disposal of the comneeded in our town. Here will be scribed for: Cosmopolitan, Century, Munsey's, McClure's, Harper's, Scrib-Literary Digest, Ladies' Home Journal, Little Men and Women, Saturda; reading room and the July number of all will be in in a very few days. At present no periodicals will be allowed to be taken from the room, but all are the rooms any afternoon from 5 30 to 7.30 and are assured of a hearty welcame. Comfortable chairs have been provided through the kindness of Mr. Geo. B. McMaster and all can be made comfortable. The $60 that has been secured for the school library through appropriation and subscription has been expended for about 100 suitable books, which will soen be in the school lobrary.

This reading reom, which we feel sure will preve both a pleasure and a benefit to the people, is largely the work of Mr. J. Frank Fooster, who has been working for it for months.
